and help us protect European Art Nouveau heritage

Jugendstil, Modern Style, Glasgow Style, Sezessionsstil, Nieuwe Kunst, Stile Liberty, Modernisme, Ecole de Nancy, Style Sapin... these are all terms relating to "Art Nouveau" that spread throughout Europe and beyond at the turn of the XXth century. This innovative artistic movement, driven by a particular set of aesthetic ideals and an enthusiasm for modernity, left a rich, highly celebrated yet fragile heritage, which is at risk of being lost.

The Réseau Art Nouveau Network, composed of institutions and experts from European Art Nouveau cities, was formed in 1999 to study, promote and help protect Art Nouveau heritage so it can endure for future generations to enjoy. We undertake a wide range of activities including exhibitions, publications, conferences and cultural exchanges aimed at adults, children, neophytes, researchers and professionals.

Become a Friend of RANN and support Art Nouveau!

By joining the RANN, our "Friends" make an important contribution to preserving Art Nouveau heritage for the future and also enjoy a range of unique benefits related to our activities (visits, visibility, publications, discount prices).
